

David S. Rose, Ph.D.
Licensed Psychologist

1110 Fidler Lane, Suite 1417
Silver Spring, MD 20910

301-587-5735, x3

Born: Manhasset, NY, August 20, 1954.

Licensed Psychologist in Maryland

Ph.D. in Psychology, May 1987, The American University, Washington, DC
M.A. in Psychology, August 1984, The American University.

B.A. in Psychology, January 1976, Boston University.

CURRENT ACTIVITIES

Clinical Psychologist, Silver Spring, MD (July 1988 - present). Outpatient psychotherapy with individuals, couples, and groups; clinical consultation and supervision.

Areas of interest/training/specialization:

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------|
| Depression and Affective Disorders | Men's Issues |
| Panic, Anxiety, Obsessions/Compulsions, | Trauma and PTSD |
| Life Changes and Transitions | Partners of Abuse Survivors |
| Loss, Grief, and Mourning | Pet Loss |
| Adult Children of Alcoholic/Dysfunctional/Abusive Families | |

Couples Therapy; work with couples in the areas of:

- | | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------|-------------------------------|
| Intimacy Building | Communications Skills | Partners of Abuse Survivors |
| Coping with Anger | Family Changes | Sexuality |
| Extramarital Involvements | | Pre-and Re-Marital Counseling |

Courtesy and Consulting Staff, The Shepard and Enoch Prate Hospital, Towson, MD (November 1989 - present). Admission and treatment privileges on inpatient service, consultation privileges in various treatment and diagnostic areas.

The ManKind Project, an international non-profit, non-sectarian Men's network for personal growth, social action, and community-building. I am Past Director of the Greater Washington Center and Past Vice-Chair of the International Center Council; I serve on the Leadership Team on intensive men's weekends, and Lead Facilitator for the ten week Post-Weekend Integration Group. I supervise beginning and intermediate facilitators, and lead staff teams in intensive processes on the weekend trainings and in the follow-up support groups. (March 1998-Present)

Intensive Short-Term Dynamic Psychotherapy (ISTDP) Training Program, The Washington School of Psychiatry.

Post-Doctoral Institute in Treating Trauma Patients and their Families, an 18-month institute sponsored by the Maryland Psychological Association.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Consulting Psychologist, The Yeshiva of Greater Washington, Silver Spring, MD (April 1998 - May 1999).

Clinical Director, Counseling and Rehabilitation Services, Inc. (September 1992 - December 1997). Liaison with attending physicians, administrators, and directors of nursing and social service; organizing and conducting staff development and training; recruiting professional and consultative staff; conducting Quality Assurance surveys, collecting, organizing, and analyzing data on clinical, and organizational activities; supervision of clinical staff. Evaluating nursing home and rehab center residents, developing treatment plans, and overseeing treatment; providing treatment and emergency consultation.

Postdoctoral Fellow in Clinical Psychology, The Shepard and Enoch Prate Hospital, Towson, MD (July 1987- June 1988). Psychotherapist and treatment team leader for chronic and acute inpatients; outpatient psychotherapy, psychological evaluation, in-hospital consultation, supervision of B.A.- and M.A.-level trainees.

Consulting Psychologist, Howard County (MD) and Fairfax County (VA) Public Schools (May 1986 - June 1991). Evaluation of students in the Emotionally Disturbed, Learning Disabled, and Special Education Programs.

Clinical Psychology Intern, Alexandria Community Mental Health Center, Alexandria, VA (September 1985 - September 1986). Individual, couple, and group psychotherapy, psychological assessment, intake assessment, crisis intervention, community consultation.

Consulting Psychometrician, Rock Creek Foundation and Centers for the Handicapped, Inc., Montgomery County, MD (January 1985 - September 1987). Intellectual and personality assessment of mentally retarded and/or developmentally disabled clients.

Clinical Psychology Trainee, Veterans Administration Medical Center, Washington, DC (May 1983- August 1983). Individual and group therapy with acute inpatients; psychological and neuropsychological assessment.

INVITED PRESENTATIONS AND LECTURES

Living with our Grief, and our Clients': Team-presented didactic and experiential workshop presented at the Ocean City Institute of the Maryland Psychological Association, May 2007.

Hypnosis and Trance-based Communication. Workshop presented to Men's group facilitators of The ManKind Project of Greater Washington.

Presentations at the East Coast Annual Conference of Single, Widowed, and Divorced Catholics, Columbia, MD. April 2000:

Searching for the Perfect Partner (If there is such a thing!)

A Workshop for Newly Single Men- Discovering Yourself and Creating Your New Self. .

Turning Conflict to Compassion- Presented through the Family Life Center of the Department of Health and Human Services, Washington, DC, March, 2000.

Imago Dialogue and Men's Group Communication Processes- Comparing, Contrasting, and Learning. Presented at the National Conference of Imago Relationship Therapist, Reston, VA, October 1999, and Detroit, MI October 2000

Mental Health Issues in Long Term Care- Caring for the Resident and the Care-Givers. Presented on an on-going basis at nursing facilities in the Washington area, 1993-1998.

Non-Medical Behavioral Interventions in Long-Term Care Settings. Presented to the Health Facilities Administration of Maryland, April 24, 1997

Long-Term Caring- Bringing Psychology to Nursing Homes and Long-Term Care Facilities, Presented at the Mid-Winter Conference of the American Psychological Association, Divisions 29, 42, and 43, March 1997.

Series of Workshops presented through the Adult Programs Office of the Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington. All involved presentations of aspects of couples communication, relationship skills, theories of attachment, patterns of relationships, models of pre-marital counseling as preventative skill-building. 1994- 2003

Communications Skills for Couples

Sensible Psychology for Real Relationships

12 Sure-fire Ways to Stop a Relationship.

Dating with Integrity- Dating like a Person YOU'D Want to Date

A series of talks presented to Parents Without Partners and New Beginnings chapters in Montgomery and Prince Georges County, MD; topics included :

Stress Management

Drugs and Alcohol Awareness

AIDS and HIV

Dating after Divorce

Effective Parenting with Your Ex

Talking about Sex with Teenagers

TEACHING AND SUPERVISORY EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Faculty, John's Hopkins University Masters Program in Counseling (Current). Teaching class in Advanced Clinical Techniques to pre-internship Masters students. Also taught a class on Developing an Ethical Private Practice.

Adjunct Faculty and Clinical Supervisor, Loyola University. Pastoral Counseling Program, (1987 – Present). Clinical supervision for Masters and Doctoral students.

Adjunct Faculty, Department of Psychology, University College, University of Maryland. (1998-2002). Designed, prepared, and conducted various classes on Special Issues in Psychology.

The Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Hospital, Towson, MD (July 1987- July 1988). Supervised undergraduate volunteers on a Chronic Schizophrenia inpatient unit; presented lectures and conducted discussions on issues of diagnosis, treatment, and the roles of a clinician.

Teaching Assistant, Department of Psychology, The American University, Washington, DC (September 1980 - May 1983).

Courses Taught:

Clinical Practica	Abnormal Psychology
Social Psychology	Behavioral Principles
Behavioral Medicine (developed, conducted, and supervised a course section on counseling skills for behavioral medicine consultants).

Memberships

Member, American Psychological Association (Member of Divisions: 29- Psychotherapy, 42- Independent Practice, 51- Men and Masculinity), 56- Trauma Psychology

Fellow, Maryland Psychological Association

Committees served on:

Managed Care, Prescription Privileges, Professional Affairs

American Group Psychotherapy Association

The Mid-Atlantic Group Psychotherapy Society

Washington Society for the Study of Psychoanalysis/Washington Psychologists for the Study of Psychoanalysis

American Society for Clinical Hypnosis (D.C. and Maryland Component Societies)

5

Imago Relationships International

Mid-Atlantic Imago Therapists

National Coalition of Mental Health Professionals and Consumers

Association for Pet Loss and Bereavement

The ManKind Project